      - AL 4999 Directed Reading (3) ☑️

5. A Signature Experience Course (3):
   Applied Linguistics students are encouraged to gain as much practical experience and extra-classroom knowledge as possible while completing their majors. You may fulfill this requirement in a number of ways, for example by participating in an internship, our cooperative education program, a faculty led study abroad or exchange program. You may also use a fourth linguistic analysis course from #3 above to fulfill this requirement if it is not counted elsewhere for your program of study.
   - AL 4980, AL 4985, AL 4999 or INEX 3000-4000 (3) ☑️

   Keep in mind that you may need additional upper level courses to fulfill the 39 hour residency requirement. Many of our majors use these residency courses to complete a minor (without delaying graduation).
